BOOK CLUB: We meet the last Thursday of each Session. We read a nonfiction book one month and a fiction book the next month. The book is suggested and selected by the group and will be moderated by the person that suggested the book title. Our group is open to everyone, even if you have not read or have previously read the book. Please feel free to join the group for any of the meetings. Keep Reading!

"The Book of Lost Names", by Kristen Harmel

Inspired by an astonishing true story from World War II, a young woman with a talent for forgery helps hundreds of Jewish Children flee the Nazis in this historical novel.

As a Polish-Jew graduate student in 1942, Eva was forced to flee Paris. She begins forging identity documents for Jewish children so they can flee to neutral Switzerland.

Erasing people comes with a price, and Eva decides she must find a way to preserve the real names of the children who are too young to remember who they really are. The records kept in The Book of Lost Names will become even more vital when the resistance cell helping is betrayed.
